The Pueblo School for Arts and Sciences Advisory Site Council will be made-up of representatives from the following: Parents, faculty, students, business community, Sangre De Cristo Arts Center, CSU-Pueblo, Pueblo City Schools, PSAS Principal and CSU-Pueblo Provost.

The duties and decisions of the Site Council include advising the Principal and CSU-Pueblo Provost on issues concerning budget, curriculum and instruction, personnel and school policies.

All members of the Site Council agree to learn and practice listening with respect for all view points and make decisions in the best interest of the entire school. Your active participation is critical to ensure the success of the Site Council.

Consistent attendance is vital to an effective committee. This committee will meet a minimum of once a month (possibly more). In addition, you may be asked to serve on subcommittees. Three unexcused absences are grounds for removal.

(If more space is needed to answer questions, use the back of this application).
